Fun, Awesome Scripture Time!

1. Exodus 20:3-17

Read the scriptures about the ten commandments together as a family. Then, play this dice game to see what you remember. Every person takes a turn by rolling one or two die. If you roll a 1, say the 1st commandment; roll a 2, say the 2nd commandment, etc. 11 and 12 are wild which means you can choose which commandment you want to say. Play a few rounds so everyone has more than one turn. You may want to do your puzzle and chatterbox to review before playing this game.

2. Exodus 18:8-12

After reading these scriptures as a family, discuss how important it is to share our testimonies. Hold a family testimony meeting or have each person write their testimony in a journal or on a paper to hang in their room or somewhere they'll see it often. Encourage your children to share their testimonies when they feel prompted or by the way they live.

3. Exodus 20:12

Read this scripture together as a family and discuss ways to honor thy father and mother. Encourage your children to do an act of service for you or look around the house and see what they can do to honor their father and mother this week.
